The Mexican Question.

Interesting Diplomatic Correspondence.

Voluminous State papers relative to Mexico, the emigration of the "rebels" to that country, and the plans of Messrs. Gwin and Maury, were presented to the United States Senate on Wednesday last. We condense their leading points:

Senor Romero first calls the attention of Mr Seward, July 9th, 1864, to the address of Gen Magruder and Governor Vidaurri's reply, showing a perfect understanding between the traitors in Mexico and the insurgents in the United States. He intimates that the French Minister to Mexico, Marquis Montholon, was working to that end, and that armed emigration from the Atlantic States and from California was in Magruder's intention.

Under date February 6th, 1865, he further notifies the Secretary of his understanding of the settlement proposed by Napoleon, by virtue of which the Mexican States, Jamaulepas, Nuevo Leon and Cohuapela, with parts of San Luis Potosi, Durango and Chihuahua, and almost all the whole of Sonora and the Peninsular of Lower California, are to be ceded to France, and that to make so considerable accession of Mexican territory acceptable, the Emperor would plant there a military colony, which should shelter the remainder of the country from fillibustering attacks from the United States. These are his arrangements, for which he cites evidence from Mexico, California and Paris, and protests against, reminding the Secretary of a fact slightly resembling the present, when the French Government in Mexico protested against a treaty concluded between Mexico and the United States, of much less importance than the present, only because of the vague rumor, more or less unfounded, that it had been concluded, and before they had official notice of its execution.

Mr. Seward replies, under date February 25th, 1865, that the protest has been placed on file as testimony to the course of Mr. Romero, and additional evidence of the zealous and patriotic discharge of his functions, and for such other uses and purposes as future secrets may render it necessary to apply it.

On the 20th of April, 1865, Mr. Romero communicated to Mr. Seward correspondence between the Confederate General Slaughter and Mexican General Mejia, relative to the capture of the Mexican steamer Orisilea, taken by the Rebels, under the plea that she was manned by citizens of the United States. As additional proof of the identity of political interests which exists between the insurgents of this country and the partisans of the French cause in Mexico, in a communication dated July 4, Mr. Romero adduces further evidence of Mexican complicity with the Rebels, and states that the commander at the post at Bagdad informed General Slaughter that he had certain instructions to permit the introduction of all arms and munitions of war that might be desired, and that they should pass freely for the use of the Confederacy.

He also asserts that there was in Monterey an agent of the Confederacy accredited to the agents of the French, and that General Mejia, the French agent in Mexico, had promised General Slaughter he would do everything he could in his favor. He also shows the trade which the Confederate States were carrying on with Mexico and other countries, through the ports of Mexico, was carried on with the consent of the French agents in Mexico. To all these statements Mr. Seward promises to give the attention to which they are entitled.

January 8th, Mr. Romero communicates statements and letters relating to the scheme of Mr. William Gwin for organizing a colony in Mexico, under the protection of France, and showing that General Basam, in command of the French forces, had authority to lend him armed assistance. Gwin writes, after the surrender of Lee, that "the startling news from the United States made the blood of a Southern man and sympathizer run cold with horror. No one will be safe in our native country. I thank Providence that my lot has been cast elsewhere, and that very soon I shall have a home for my wife and children where they will be free from oppression."

Among the intercepted letters is one from Maury to the Hon. B. Wood, of New York, in which he says that Soule is in the Gwin enterprise, and that the French Emperor will give him all he desires, and that he will "go out as director general, in charge of every peculiar kind of consultation." He says further, "You ought to have sent me money; it is hard to finance on nothing indefinitely, and I have concentrated my whole strength on our scheme."

Mr. Seward writes to Minister Bigelow, July 18th, enclosing these intercepted letters relative to Mexican colonization, and requests him to present them to M. Drouyn De L'Huys, and frankly inform him that the sympathies of the American people are already considerably in favor of the Republic of Mexico, and that they are disposed to regard with impatience the continued intervention of France in that country. That any favor shown to the proceedings of Dr. Gwin by the titular Emperor of Mexico, or by the Imperial Government of France, with reference to these agents, will tend greatly to increase the popular impatience, because it will be regarded, perhaps justly, as imparting danger to, or at least as a menace against, the United States. If these statements are to be believed, Mr. Seward assumed, with the sanction of the President, that the Emperor of the French has divested his position of neutrality.

The Tallahassee Floridian, in describing the late inauguration of Gov. Walker, says, at the close of the inaugural, the band of the Seventh regulars struck up "Dixie," which electrified the audience and called forth repeated cheers. All felt its inspiring strains. Many among those who had perilled their lives in defence of a cause now gone forever, wept as they remembered the toils, the suffering they had endured in vain, and their hopes forever blasted, which once animated them.

We learn that the muster out of Lafayette C. Baker, as a Brigadier General, was not in consequence of any dissatisfaction in the mind of the Secretary of War towards his zealous and skilful instrument, but in obedience to an express command of the President.

We learn also that an order from the War Department, countermanding the muster out of certain troops in Virginia, was in turn countermanded by the President, who has directed that the troops in question be mustered out.—Nat. Intelligencer.

IMPORTANT SALE.

ON WEDNESDAY, THE 24TH OF JANUARY, 1866. I shall offer for sale, my plantation in Bertie County, lying on the Roanoke River, three miles from Hill's Ferry on said river, and six from the village of Woodville in Bertie County containing 1000 acres, more or less; 500 acres cleared and well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn wheat, &c.
There is a very fine opportunity to make a large cotton crop on the plantation the next year, as there is compost enough ready made to manure nearly 100 acres. The plantation made in 1865, 45,000 pounds of lint cotton, and 4,000 bushels of corn; and, with proper management, will do great deal better for the next year, as the most of the cotton land has had rest for the past two years A very great advantage which this farm has, is its convenience to transportation, being only one mile to a good landing on the river, where there is a regular line of steamers to Norfolk weekly. In addition to the above, this is the only river farm in this portion of the county that has fire wood enough, conveniently for use; there is an abundance here, and timber of almost every kind, cypress, oak, hickory, ash, gum, &c. Lumber dealers would do well to examine the land before the day of sale.
There are about 400 or 500 acres on this tract uncleared, which affords a fine range for hogs, and a free access to numberless acres of uncultivated lands renders it very profitable for the raising of cattle, colts &c.
The improvements consist of a gin house and cotton screw, overseer's house, cabins enough for 25 or 30 laborers, corn barns &c. At the same time and place, I shall sell 200 or 300 barrells of corn, fodder, mules, horses, hogs, farming utensils &c.
Terms for the land: one third cash, the balance in two equal instalments, payable respectively in 12 and 18 months, and title withheld until payments made. For the perishable property, cash.
For any further particulars, address the subscriber at Enfield, Halifax county, N. C.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.—Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

The Real Reason.

We read, in English history, that when the Act of Union between England and Scotland was consummated, in the early part of the eighteenth century, and it was proposed to merge the Parliaments of the two countries into one, that of the former took much alarm. "The compact phalanx of forty-five determined Scotchmen will give them the decision of every question brought before Parliament," said England, with great fear,—and great misapprehension, as it subsequently turned out, and as must have been but too manifest, at the time, considering the large numerical composition of that body.

Precisely similar to this English policy are the real motives and reasons operating to the exclusion of the Southern members from Congress. It is but charity to believe that the members of that body are convinced of the utter unconstitutionality of the "Test Oath," since we have never yet read or seen an argument advanced in favor of its constitutionality. They are compelled to recognize the fact, that the States of the South have complied with all the requirements imposed upon them as preliminaries to restoration. However reluctantly, even the most extreme of the radicals must acknowledge, in their hearts, if they have any, that never before, under circumstances at all similar, have there been such a dignified acceptance of disaster, such a cheerful acquiescence in the verdict of arms, or so remarkable a subsidence of passion, as have been exhibited by and among our people. They must accept the testimony of the President and Gen. Grant as to the condition of affairs in our midst, or they must reject all evidence. They do believe it,—in their hearts, as we have said, they feel and accept it. And yet they continue deaf to the demands of justice and magnanimity.

Having monopolized, for nearly five years past, the sweets of patronage and place, these men are filled with the most terrible apprehension lest, under the sagacious and benignant policy of the President, the South may, in the course of time, recover some of its ancient influence in the councils of the Government, or, perchance, share with them the "loaves and fishes." Hence, their infuriated hostility and daily displays of malignity and spleen. Their fears, in one respect, are well-founded. True, we indulge the hope that, for many years to come, the South will steer as clear as possible of the sea of Federal politics, upon which its fortunes have been wrecked, and devote itself almost exclusively to its own internal recuperation from the blight that has been put upon it. Still, it will promptly range itself almost as one man along side Andrew Johnson and his policy, and, in co-operation with the reflecting, national and conservative portion of the North, assist in hurling from power those who know how to use it only for purposes of oppression, wrong and rapacity.

Renting Lands---Cotton.

There is a large amount of good cotton land in the State, which at present seems liable to be left uncultivated for the present year. The recent success, however, with which some of our landholders in the eastern part of the State have met, in renting out their lands, gives us encouragement. The want of capital alone prevents the cultivation of our lands. Northern capitalists, therefore, will find it to their advantage to rent these lands.

No State in the South offers greater inducements to cotton raisers, than North Carolina does upon her cotton lands. An experienced Mississippi cotton planter remarked to us, some years ago, on his return to visit his native State, that if he had imagined, twenty-five years before, that the cotton lands of North Carolina would prove so certain and so productive, he never would have left the State. He assured us that he considered the cotton lands of North Carolina preferable, under the improved system of cultivation, to any of the Southern States.—He said the plant was not half so liable to disease here as further South, that the crop was much more certain, and the average yield quite as good as he had found it in Mississippi.

We advise all our landholders to rent out their surplus cotton lands to any one who will cultivate them properly, at a remunerating price.—Many have thrown their lands in the market for sale. This we regard as an error, if our people intend to remain in the State, as we hope they do. The very best property a man can secure for his children is land. If any have a surplus—more than they or their children will need,—they might sell the surplus to actual settlers. But better rent, by far, to good tenants, than to sell, unless necessity compels it.

A LOUISIANA PAPER says the change from free to slave has killed off the negroes like an epidemic, and assumes that there are not now exceeding 200,000 of them in that State,—showing a loss of about 50,000 since 1860.

The Stay Law.

At the request of some of our readers, we insert to-day, on the fourth page, the law still in operation, known as the stay law. We are not prepared to say what the Legislature will do in reference to the existing law. It is, however, evident that it must remain untouched, or some other effective method must be adopted, by which the collection of debts may be barred.

There are very serious objections, under any circumstances, to any law which interferes between debtor and creditor, to the damage of the creditor. Hence, there is a repugnance in the intelligent mind to all stay laws or laws which prevent the collection of an honest debt. The present, however, is no ordinary occasion. Nine-tenths of our population find it difficult to provide even ordinary support for their families.—To do even this much, it is necessary that they should have the control of the small amount of means in their possession. Yet it is manifest that honest creditors, guardians and wards, should be protected against absolute loss of the little means the war has left them.

The Legislature, therefore, will have much to do, in protecting honest debtors against positive ruin, and, at the same time, to afford honest creditors the protection which the law should guarantee. Whether any thing better can be done, than the laws now in existence, with, perhaps, some modification, we are not prepared to say.

Southern Debts.

We noticed, as an item of news, in our issue of yesterday, that a memorial had been presented to the Senate of the United States from the New York Chamber of Commerce, asking the passage of an act exempting suitors in the National courts of the Southern States from the operation of State statutes of limitation, long enough to give "loyal" creditors an opportunity to enforce their demands.

This is, really, one of the most remarkable procedures of this day of remarkable occurrences, and is not very well calculated to promote that resumption of commercial intercourse for which, we have had every reason to believe, Northern dealers were striving. In view of the prostrate condition of our finances, and our terrible losses during the war, it is an exhibition of Shylockism that is both ungenerous and inexcusable. It might, perhaps, be well for our merchants and others, to preserve the announcement, to show that class of itinerant gentry, known as Drummers, who may daily be seen in our midst, presenting "extraordinary inducements" to attract the Southern trade.

It may not be known to the wise-acres, who compose the Chamber of Commerce, "so-called," that the Congress of the United States have no right to pass any law upon this subject in contravention of a State statute. We presume, however, that it is made up of such men as the Stewarts, and others, who recognize the doctrine of "higher law," and to whom Constitutions are only so much waste-paper. At all events, as Capt. Cuttle would say, let our people "overhaul the matter and make a note of it."

Corn---Whiskey Distilleries.

The late crop of corn in the State was thought to be a very fair one. A month ago, there was no complaint of scarcity, or a prospect of it. Yet we presume no one believed, that the amount of corn in the State was more than sufficient to feed liberally man and beast. At this early day, the complaint of scarcity is being rung out, and here, in the city of Raleigh, it is retailing at the high price of $2 per bushel, and very scarce at that. Meal, therefore, is equally scarce and equally high, where we have a population as needy, and as numerous among the needy, as any in the State. Poor people are already looking wan and melancholy, asking what they are to do for bread.

Is there a cause for this scarcity? Is there any good reason why corn, in the month of January, should be selling for $2 per bushel in the city of Raleigh? This, too, when gold is going down and greenbacks are improving? A month ago, when gold was worth 1.50, corn sold at $1 to 1.25; now, when gold is only 1.35, corn and meal are at $2.

We have recently learned that there are no less than 25 to 30 whiskey distilleries in the counties of Wake, Franklin, Granville and Warren, each! How many in Johnston, Wayne, Nash and Chatham, we have not heard. Ordinarily, Wake county makes no more corn than is necessary for home consumption. How can she get along, if one half or two thirds of it are made into whiskey?

We know that the scarcity of money may be pleaded very strongly, for converting any thing our people have into money. But ought breadstuffs, when there are so many poor hungry mouths, to be thus used? The moral aspects of this question, too, are alarming. One half or one third of this whiskey, instead of being eaten up in the form of bread by our people, will be drank by them, until many are made drunkards for life. And what is to be the effect upon our colored population, many of whom will dispense with bread all day, for the sake of a drink of whiskey?

We are not in favor of Legislative trammels upon the enterprise and industry of the country, but the necessities of the case demand that the Legislature look to this matter. Whiskey yields a pretty large internal revenue tax to the Federal government, at present, and in the lean state of our State Treasury, there are few better subjects of taxation. The price of whiskey, too, will bear it very well.

IT IS disgusting to witness the abortive attempts that are being made, in various quarters, to ape the style of "Bill Arp." These wretched copyists approach the original about as nearly as a cross-roads wit does the trenchant humor of Douglas Jerrold.

SALISBURY BANNER.—Dr. Stiles Kennedy has become associate editor of this paper. In his brief salutatory, he says, "I bring very little into it, and I expect to take very little out of it." If you take very little from very little, what remains?

Gov. Worth and the Horse Question.

We are indebted to GOV. WORTH for the following correspondence and General Order of Gen. Ruger, in reference to the questions arising from the demand made by the authorities for the delivery of all horses belonging to the U. S. government.

The order of Gen. Ruger is specific, and contains such instructions as will enable the people to know how to act in the premises.

Gov. Worth sincerely sympathizes with the people in the deprivation to which they must submit, and he entertains some hope, from the efforts he is making with the government at Washington, that the government will be induced to modify its instructions still further, so as to mitigate, in some degree, the inconvenience, if not positive suffering, which may arise from so general a withdrawal of the working animals from those who are positively unable to pay for them. Gen. Ruger has shown a disposition to go to the limit of his instructions, so as to cause as little inconvenience as possible:

CORRESPONDENCE.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT, N. C.,
Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 15, 1866.

Gov.:—I have the honor to enclose herewith, for your information, a copy of General Order, No. 4, current series, from these Headquarters.

I am, Governor,
Very respectfully,
Your ob't serv't,
J. A. CAMPBELL,
Asst. Adjt. Gen.

His Excellency
GOV. JONATHAN WORTH,
Raleigh, N. C.

GENERAL ORDER.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF N. C.,
Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 12th, 1866.

General Orders, }
No. 4. }

It appearing that Agents employed in the collection of public animals have, in some instances, acted without authority, the following rules will be observed by all concerned:

I. All citizens employed for the collection of such animals will be at once discharged. Such duty can be performed by enlisted men detailed for the purpose.

II. No animal not branded "U. S." or "C. S." will be taken from the possessor, except upon orders in each particular case, from these Headquarters. Officers charged with the duty of collecting animals, and having reason to believe that animals not branded are the property of the Government, will forward report with statements of facts and evidence in each case.

III. The 3d Article of the Supplemental Terms of Surrender of the Rebel forces under General Joseph E. Johnston is as follows: "Private horses and other private property of both officers and men to be retained by them." Consequently, private horses of those included in the terms of surrender, although used in service against the Government during the war, will not be collected, as the said article expressly excepts them. It has been represented that many private horses in the Rebel service were branded. The fact that a horse or mule is branded "C. S." is prima facie evidence, that it belongs to the Government, but evidence to the contrary will be received, and if it appears, that such branded animal was actually private property at the time of the surrender of the Rebel forces, it will be restored to the claimant. District commanders will decide the question of right of property to such animals as are branded and claimed under the terms of surrender.

IV. Animals will be sold in the counties where collected, unless it would be a loss to the Government. The collection of animals not branded "U. S." will be completed by the first day of February, proximo, after which date no animals not branded "U. S." will be collected, except on orders from these Headquarters.

V. The foregoing does not apply to the collection of animals heretofore loaned by order of the military authorities, which animals, whether branded or not, will be collected and sold as heretofore ordered.

VI. It is to be borne in mind by all, that in the collection of animals, only such as are the property of the Government are to be taken.

The rules to be observed are, that no animal not branded "U. S." or "C. S." is to be taken except on orders from Department Headquarters, in each particular case; that the brand "U. S." or "C. S." is prima facie evidence of property in the Government; that possession of proper certificates of sale of animals branded "U. S." is the proper and conclusive evidence of ownership of the possessor, and that of animals branded "C. S." proof that such animals were private property, at the time of the surrender of the Rebel armies, will entitle the possessor to retain them.

By command of
BREVET MAJOR GENERAL RUGER:
J. A. CAMPBELL,
Assit. Adjt. Gen.

OFFICIAL:
J. A. CAMPBELL, Assistant Adjt. General.

THE PRESENT CONDITION of labor in the Southern States is being more and more realized and considered at the North, as to its bearings upon the future trade and commerce of the country. It is beginning to be appreciated that the two great staples, cotton and tobacco, which figure so extensively in the foreign as well as domestic commerce of the country, are in jeopardy from the demoralization of the labor system. Upon this subject, the Louisville Courier remarks:

"The attention of New Englanders, who have always exhibited a lively ambition to accumulate large gains from their manufacturing interests, are keenly exercised in regard to the future of cotton arising from this apprehension, and are accordingly making some exertions in the way of petitions and resolutions for an amelioration and more perfect organization of the negro labor in the South. The wisest heads of the nation, those divested of all radical fanaticism, or negro-phobia, consider the people of the States heretofore slave States better acquainted with the ways, wants, condition and habits of the negro, more capable and better calculated to organize the labor in the South, than through military orders, freedmen's bureaus, or laws that may be promulgated under the auspices of this body."

The Lost Cause.

Mr. E. A. Pollard, now of Memphis, Tenn., is at present engaged in writing a new Southern history of the war. He is desirous of adding to his already large stock of information, and calls upon all Southern officers, or persons having valuable information in possession, to send it to him directly, or to Messrs. E. B. Treat & Co., 180 Grand Street, New York. The work will be published, by subscription, by Messrs. E. B. Treat & Co.

The President and the Radicals.

The intelligent correspondent of the Richmond Examiner makes the following comments upon the attempt of the lower House in Congress to force the President to retain the troops in the South:

"It is said here that this usurpation, on the part of the House, of Executive power, is prompted by the Secretary of War, which would seem to imply the existence of a feud between him and the President. But it has, really, deeper meaning. It anticipates a breach with the President, before Congress shall consent to the restoration of the Union. The resolution pronounces that the Government must maintain military power over the "seceded States." The States, then, are, according to the Stevens-Sumner doctrine, still seceded, though they have annulled all their acts of secession.

It has been apprehended by Congress that the President would, under the advice of General Grant, withdraw the black troops from interior positions in the South, and fill their places by white troops. The Republicans object to this. Should the President see fit to withdraw the troops entirely from any State, except, of course, the harbor defences, what can Congress do to prevent it? They have no resource but impeachment, which has been menaced, and which will be resorted to when coaxing and wheedling shall fail.

The House, having usurped the military power of the Executive, will next, perhaps, undertake to dictate to him his action in his civil capacity. They may dictate for him a Radical Cabinet, if, indeed, he shall attempt to form one of a different character. They will reduce the Executive power to a cypher, and govern the country by a Pennsylvania and Massachusetts cabal, with Thaddeus Stevens at its head.

The President has, however, to my knowledge, been prepared for some time to meet all these assaults, whether open or covert. At a proper time he will show his hand. His first demonstration may be the intended proclamation of the restoration of the Southern States to the Union, and his next may be the withdrawal of United States troops from places where they are not necessary for the preservation of order."

For the Sentinel.

Local Ministers' Convention.

The Convention re-assembled in the City of Raleigh, at 12 o'clock, December the 8th, at the call of the Committee. On motion of Prof. Pool, Dr. Hooker was called to the chair and L. Branson appointed Secretary. L. Branson being called upon to explain the objects of the Convention, stated briefly of the previous session of the Convention, held in August of 1864, also of the circular letter sent out in March, of the present year, and of the general interest manifested by the Local Body so far as intelligence has reached them—"that it was desired now to organize the Convention into a regular Association so as to elevate and render more effective this class of workingmen, thereby preventing those epithets too often circulated about these unassuming and comparatively unknown laborers in the Ministry.

Rev. Solomon Pool then made a brief but valuable speech, showing himself alive to the great work of the Ministry, and very highly approving every proper means for elevating and improving the local Ministry of our church.

On motion, W. H. Cuninggim, Solomon Pool, L. Branson, W. J. W. Crowder, and Turner M. Jones, were appointed a committee, to prepare appropriate business for the Convention. On motion of G. W. Heptinstall, the former committee was relieved. The Convention adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at the hour appointed, and Rev. Turner M. Jones, of Louisburg Female College, was called to the chair.

The committee on business reported as follows:

1. We recommend that this body be resolved into a Local Ministers' Association to meet annually at some appropiate place.

2. That the Association appoint a President, a Secretary and one Vice President for each Presiding Elder's District.

3. That the Annual Association be held in the month of August, each year.

4. That a committee be appointed to address a circular letter to the local ministry throughout the State.

5. We recommend that the following resolutions be passed, and that they be incorporated in the circular letter.

1. Resolved, That we recommend local ministers, so far as practicable, to preach once on each Sabbath, and at such churches as do not usually have Sabbath preaching by regular pastors.

2. That it is desirable we should give special attention everywhere to our Sabbath School interests.

3. That we recommend, always, a cordial co-operation with the itinerant ministry.

4. That we desire the next General Conference to enact such laws as shall require all ministers to pass examination, on some specified course of study, before receiving ordination.

5. That we do protest against locating men with full powers as local ministers, who, at the time, are liable to impeachment, or whose character has not been passed.

Respectfully,
W. H. CUNINGGIM,
SOLOMON POOL,
L. BRANSON,
W. J. W. CROWDER,
TURNER M. JONES,
} Com.

The report of the committee was received and the Convention proceeded to take up the articles seriatim.

On motion of W. H. Cuninggim, the committee was continued and requested to prepare a circular to be sent to all the local ministers of the State, showing more fully the objects to be accomplished by the Convention, and desiring them to assemble in one united Convention at some specified time and place.

On motion, an assessment of one dollar on each member present was made to defray the expenses of printing.

The Convention then instructed the committee to especially incorporate the following points in the circular letter.

1. The duty of regular Sabbath preaching so far as practicable.

2. A cordial co-operation with Itinerant Ministers in good standing.

3. The importance of higher ministerial attainments both moral and intellectual.

4. The necessity of strictly guarding against admitting improper persons into the Ministry from the laity.

5. The impropriety of receiving men from any source, or retaining men in the Local Ministry, who are detrimental to the cause.

6. The great advantages to be gained by united sympathy and more frequent associations among ourselves.

The Convention was then entertained for a length of time, by an able address from the Rev. N. F. Reid, of the North Carolina Conference, approving the objects of the Convention, and showing the absolute necessity of diligence and devotion in order for ministers of any class to obtain eminence in the calling.

A unanimous vote of thanks was returned Mr. Reid by the Convention, for his profound remarks and paternal advice.

On motion the Convention adjourned, subject to the call of the committee.

HAMPSHIRE COAL.

CARGO OF 275 TONS HAMPSHIRE COAL DAILY expected from Baltimore.

This coal is bituminous, and perhaps the best coal known for steam purposes whether for locomotives or steamboats. It is used almost exclusively by Northern railroad companies and the Cunard Steamers. It is also represented as the best blacksmith's coal in the country and is very extensively used in iron works for forging, etc. It is soft and friable, the fine coal being as good for use as the lump.

The attention of railroad companies, iron works and machine shops, is particularly invited to the importance of a trial of this coal.

The undersigned having been appointed agent for the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, will be prepared to furnish any quantity required, at a reasonable price.

Orders respectfully solicited

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

OUR MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The City charter elections came off on yesterday, and were conducted without excitement. The following were the successful candidates:

MAYOR:—W. H. Harrison.

Commissioners Middle Ward—C. B Root, W. R. Richardson, H. Mahler.

Commissioners Eastern Ward—D. L. Royster, N. S. Harp, W. H. McKee.

Commissioners Western Ward—C. M. Farriss, A. Sorrell, P. Overby.

W. W. Woodell was elected Constable of District No. 1.

BOARD.—The Misses Litchford, near the N. C. Central depot, would take three or four members of the Legislature to board, with comfo table rooms, and at moderate charges. Transient boarders can also be accommodated.—Standard.

We add our testimony to that of the Standard, that persons who desire a private boarding house will find this an excellent one. To transient persons it is specially desirable on account of its proximity to the depot.

WE HAD the pleasure of a visit, on yesterday, from E. J. Hale, jr., formerly of the Fayetteville Observer. Capt. Hale is now with the firm of Romme, Dunkle and Johnston, of New York, whose advertisement will be found in our columns. Capt. Hale's connection with it is a sufficient guarantee to our people of its respectability and reliability.

QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.—Col. M. C. Garber has entered upon his duties as Chief Quartermaster of the Department of North Carolina, vice Brevet Brg. Gen. J. F. Boyd, gone home.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to

Announcement of Spring Session of Glen Anna Female Seminary, Thomasville,—an established and popular institution.

Hampshire coal, of superior quality, by Peter Mallett, 23 North Water St., Wilmington.

Tournament at Clayton, Johnston Co., on the 25th inst.

Kellogg, Wheeler & Co., selling out their valuable stock of goods at cost.

Geo. E. Taylor offers a valuable Farm near Raleigh for sale.

WESTERN EXTENSION.—The Asheville News mentions the rumor that Mr. Caldwell, the President of the Western Extension of the N. C. Railroad, has secured a loan of funds sufficient to complete that important work to Morganton.

EDGECOMBE COUNTY.—The Tarboro Southerner mentions the sale of the plantation of Mr. L. S. Dunn, four miles from Tarboro, for the sum of $30,550. The tract contains 1527½ acres. Dr. J. Baker and T. J. Stewart were the purchasers.

GOLDSBORO'.—The following gentlemen were chosen Commissioners of this town, at the election on Saturday last, viz: Messrs. T. T. Hollowell, S. D. Phillips, W. H. Finlayson, W. R. Privett and J. N. Wood.

AUCTION SALE.—We observe that the auction sale of Messrs. Cronly & Morris, of Wilmington, was very well sustained as to prices. We judge, however, that our merchants, who bought there, did better than going to New York.

WILMINGTON, CHARLOTTE AND RUTHERFORD RAILROAD.—The stockholders of this Company are to meet in Charlotte on the 18th inst. The Dispatch says that, through the able and efficient management of the officers, the road has been placed in good running order, and much which has been destroyed has been replaced.

THE TEST-OATH.—Mr. Lincoln's Attorney General, Hon. Edward Bates, of Missouri, publishes a letter in the Missouri Republican, in which he gives his opinion of the odious Congressional test-oath. He says:

Test-oaths, odious, oppressive, and cowardly always, are always the resort of desperate parties who (as violent as timidity can make them) seize upon this method to weaken their adversaries, whom they are afraid to meet in fair and open controversy. It was of frequent occurrence during the French revolution, and one remarkable instance has been preserved for our instruction by the great historian of that epoch. The two legislative councils—The Ancients and the Five Hundred—imputing to their adversaries the crime of Royalism, hoped by an adroit trick to get rid of their presence in the councils, and their influence with the people. And so, in the forged name of Republicanism, they decreed that all the members of the councils should, on a certain day, take an oath of hatred to royalty. The opposition (quite as good Republicans as their hypocritical oppressors) resisted, as best they could, complained and protested—but they took the oath—for they had no notion of deserting their place in the Government, and thus leaving their unprincipled adversaries, unresisted, to work out their wicked will in the mis-government of the country. And the philosophic historian dismisses the subject with this brief remark: "This formality of an oath, so frequently employed by parties, never could be considered as a guaranty; it has never been anything but an annoyance of the conquerors, who have taken delight in forcing the conquered to perjure themselves."

Justice—that was the craft policy of the French Revolutionary radicals—and our revolutionary radicals do but follow their example. And we may indulge the hope that the reign of our Radicals will be made as brief as that of their great examples, and by the same cause—their follies and their crimes. Your friend,

EDWARD BATES.

AN EDITORIAL RECONTRE took place on yesterday between Mr. Pollard, of the Examiner, and Mr. Brooks, the Richmond correspondent of the New York Times, growing out of a letter in reference to the late shooting affray at the Capitol between Messrs. Pollard and Coleman. Mr. P. was the attacking party and commenced with the use of a cowhide, which he applied to Mr. B., but, in the scuffle which ensued, the weapon was dropped and some severe blows were exchanged between the parties, Mr. Brooks being, however, the most severely injured of the two.

The affray took place at the Spotswood Hotel and the glass partition fronting the office was pretty thoroughly demolished in the struggle. Richmond Sentinel, 13th.

General News.

Gen. Grant officially recommends the retention of a sufficient military force in the South to insure tranquility, and, while this is done, he doubts the propriety of putting arms in the hands of the militia.

The second assistant postmaster general, Mr. Zeverly, has left Washington for the south to arrange postal facilities.

Hon. James Harlan, secretary of the interior department, has been elected U. S. senator from Iowa, commencing March, 1867.

A negro high school was dedicated at Nashville, on Tuesday last. Governor Brownlow was present and advised the teachers to be exceedingly prudent and cautious. The Governor evidently regards his own position as very precarious. He is reported to have said that if the United States troops were withdrawn, the negro schools would not be kept open a week, and that the State Legislature would be broken up by a mob in forty-eight hours. He is also represented as opposed to President Johnson's policy of reconstruction.

The citizens of Memphis, Tennessee, propose a concert in aid of Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, as well as for the purpose of purchasing an oil portrait of General Jackson to be transmitted to Virginia.

A man who was noticed to be driving quite slowly, near Boonesboro, Iowa, the other night, was found, though tightly grasping his lines, to be frozen dead.

Three millions dollars worth of the bonds of the Mexican Republic have been taken in New York City.

The increase in the number of criminal arrests in New York city, this year, over the year previous, is 14,000.

Messrs. Sam R. Anderson and Bushrod R. Johnson, both Confederate Generals in the late war, have entered into partnership fo the transaction of the real estate business in Nashville.

REORGANIZED.—On Saturday night last, we are glad to learn, a "Young Men's Christian Association" was organized in this city by the election of the following officers:

Important Order from General Grant.

WASHINGTON, January 12.—Gen. Grant has issued an order to protect loyal persons against improper suits and penalties in the late Confederate States. It provides that military division and department commanders, whose commands embrace or are composed of any part of the late Confederate States, and who have not already done so, will at once issue and enforce orders, protecting from prosecution or suits in the State or municipal courts of such States, all officers and soldiers of the United States and all persons thereto attached or in anywise thereto belonging, subject to military authority, charged with offences for acts done in their military capacity, or pursuant to orders from proper military authority, and to protect from suit or prosecution all loyal citizens or persons charged with offences done against the Confederate forces, directly or indirectly, during the existence of the rebellion, and all persons, their agents or employees, charged with the occupancy of abandoned lands or plantations, or the possession or custody of any kind of property whatever, who occupied, used or possessed the same, pursuant to the order of the President, or any of the civil or military departments of the Government, and to protect them from any penalty or damages that may have been or may be pronounced or adjudged in said courts, in any of such cases, and also protecting colored persons from prosecutions in any of said States, charged with offences for which white persons are not prosecuted or punished in the same degree.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 15.

SENATE.—Mr. Howard offered a joint resolution, declaring that whereas it appears that Messrs. Davis and Clay are held in confinement as having been concerned in the assassination of President Lincoln, and the murder of federal soldiers, held as prisoners of war, therefore it is respectfully recommended that they be immediately tried by a military commission.

Objection being made, the resolution lies over.

HOUSE.—The credentials of the representatives from Arkansas were presented and referred to the Committee on Elections.

A proposition was made, and received 12 votes, authorizing the negroes in the District of Columbia to decide by ballot whether white men should vote!

Mr. Stevens offered a resolution, instructing the Judiciary Committee to consider the expediency of so amending the act of 1865, relating to the test oath, as to allow lawyers to practice their professions, without taking said oath, on equal terms with other professions.

House then resumed the discussion of the negro suffrage bill.

If You are threatened with Pneumonia, read the following from Capt. W. P. Davis, of Petersburg, Virginia:

"Sympathy for the suffering prompts me to certify that my servent man was suffering in the last stage of pneumonia throwing up matter and blood in large quantities; his case was considered hopeless, so much so, that there was no medical prescription used for his recovery; I regarded him as good as dead. Hearing of the great cures made by the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS, I thought that I would try an experiment on him; without any hope of success, however, I gave the Pills in large doses; in a short time, to my great surprise, there was a change for the better. I continued giving them to him until he became a perfectly sound man. He is now attending to his work with as much strength and vigor as he ever did. With his case, and what I have seen and heard of the good effect of these Pills, I do most earnestly recommend them as the best family medicine I have ever seen or used."

Desirable Farm for Sale.

THE PLANTATION SITUATED ABOUT TWO and a half miles from the village of Magnolia on the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., between Rocky Hock and Kenansville, and known as "Barbecue," is offered for sale. The tract contains 380 acres, 100 of which are cleared and have been under cultivation, producing excellent Corn, Wheat, potatoes, &c. A portion of the land is admirably adapted to the culture of cotton. An inexhaustible bed of Marl, a large spring of as good water as can be found in the State, and a never failing stream, running through the center of the cleared land are among the attractions of the place.

The timbered portion of the land being nearest the Rail Road and the entire place being easy of access to either market, make it a highly desirable location for growing produce, raising stock and selling timber. Any one having the cash, can procure a bargain by applying immediately to Stay Law.

AN ACT TO CHANGE THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS AND THE RULES OF PLEADING THEREIN.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the several superior courts of law shall have exclusive original jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all causes of a civil nature whatever, at the common law, which may require the intervention of a jury.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That there shall be but one term of the said superior courts of law and equity, open and held in each of the counties of the State, in each year, which shall be holden at the time and places now required by law for holding the fall terms of said court, and all laws requiring the holding of the spring term of said courts are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That in all actions brought in the said superior courts of law and equity, the defendant or defendants shall not be compelled to plead thereto for twelve months from the return term.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That in all cases where suits have already been brought and are now pending in any of the superior courts of law and equity, it shall be the duty of said court, and it is hereby required, to give the defendant or defendants further time for trial, until the fall term of 1862, when the same shall stand for trial as other suits which may have been heretofore brought returnable to the fall term of 1861, the defendant or defendants shall not be compelled to plead or answer thereto for twelve months.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the courts of pleas and quarter sessions of the several counties, except the counties of Transylvania, Clay, Mitchell and Alleghany, each of which counties shall have one court of pleas and quarter sessions every year, which shall be holden in Transylvania on the 3d Monday in August, and in Clay on the last Monday in August, and in Mitchell on the second Monday in September, and in Alleghany on the fourth Monday in October in each year, shall not have jurisdiction of any civil case in which the intervention of a jury may be necessary; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of said courts to make up a record in all civil cases now pending in the said courts of pleas and quarter sessions, and file the same, together with the orignal papers, with the clerks of the superior courts of law, on or before the fall term of the superior courts of law in their respective counties; and it shall be the duty of the clerks of the superior courts of law to enter the said cases upon their appearance docket, and the same shall stand for trial at the said term of the said superior court as other cases now pending in said court.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That in all cases in which judgments have heretofore been taken in either the superior or county courts, and upon which executions have issued, it shall be the duty of the sheriff or other officer, in whose hands such executions have been placed for collection, to endorse a levy upon the property of the defendant or defendants, sufficient to satisfy the same, and return such executions without making a sale; and upon return it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue a venditioni exponas or fieri facias, at the election of the plaintiff, returnable to that term of the succeeding court which is held twelve months from the test of such venditioni exponas, or fieri facias, and that all alias executions upon judgments heretofore taken shall be returnable in like manner.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That so much of the 17th section of the 105th chapter of the revised code, as subjects sheriffs to a penalty of one hundred dollars for not executing and returning process, be and the same is hereby repealed, as to all penalties incurred since the passage of a bill at the last regular session of the General Assembly, entitled "A bill to prevent the sacrifice of property, and for the relief of the people," and as to all future penalties.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That no capias ad satisfaciendum shall issue from any of the courts or from any justice of the peace upon any judgment now existing, or upon any judgment which may be hereafter obtained in any of the said courts, or before any justice of the peace.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of all constables and other officers to levy any executions which may be in their hands, issued upon judgments heretofore issued by magistrates, and to return the same, together with said levies, to the justice of the peace who issued the same, or to some other magistrate in said county, whose duty it shall be, upon the application of the plaintiff, to issue a venditioni exponas, not returnable sooner than twelve months from the date thereof.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That hereafter all civil warrants issued by justices of the peace shall be made returnable for trial twelve months after the date of issuing such warrants, and not before; and no justice of the peace shall have power or jurisdiction to try any such warrants before the expiration of twelve months from the issuing of the same: Provided, That the defendant or defendants are residents of this State; and all executions issued by a justice of the peace shall be made returnable twelve months from the issuing of the same; and upon the trial of such warrant, either party may appeal from the judment to the next succeeding fall term of the superior court of the county where the warrant is tried, by giving security as is now provided by law in case of appeal from justices' judgments; but if the defendant or defendants make oath that he or they are unable to give security for the amount of the judgment and costs, then the justice shall grant the appeal without security; and return the paper with such affidavit to the next fall term of the superior court of said county, when the defendant shall enter his plea, and the case shall be continued over and not stand for trial until the next succeeding fall term of said court.

SEC. 11. Be it further enacted, That if any sheriff, clerk or other officer shall violate any of the provisions of this act, he shall forfeit the sum of two hundred dollars, to be recovered by any person suing for the same in the name of the State, and shall also be subject to indictment, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 12. Be it further enacted, That all deeds of trust and mortgages hereafter made, and judgments confessed to secure debts, shall be void as to creditors, unless it is expressly declared therein that the proceeds of sale thereunder shall be appropriated to the payment of all the debts and lisbilities of the trustor or mortgagor, equally pro rata: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to sheriffs or other public officers who may make a mortgage or deed of trust to secure securities to their official bond.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That there shall be but one term of the supreme court of the State, which shall be held in the city of Raliegh, at the usual time for holding the summer term thereof, and all laws which require the winter term of same court to be held are hereby repealed, and the judges of the said court are not required to hold the winter term thereof.

SEC. 14. Be it further enacted, That the Morganton term of said court shall be discontinued, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court, held heretofore in the town of Morganton, to transmit to the clerk of the court held in the city of Raleigh all the records, books and papers pertaining to said court in Morganton, on or before the second Monday in June next, and it shall likewise be the duty of the clerk of the court of Morganton to expose to sale the library at Morganton, (except such books as the judges of the supreme court shall direct to be transmitted to the library in the city of Raleigh,) at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, and pay the proceeds into the public treasury, after repaying the amount advanced by members of the bar in its purchase: And provided further, That members of the bar, who have placed law books in said library for the benefit of the court, shall be permitted to withdraw them before the sale.

SEC. 15. Be it further enacted, That all matters and causes now remaining undetermined in said court at Morganton shall be docketted in the court at Raleigh, in such order as the judges shall prescribe, and shall be there heard and determined, and the clerk of said court in Morganton shall make all his reports, touching all matters referred to him, to the next summer term of the court in Raleigh, as fully and completely as the same shall be made to the court in Morganton, and that all writs, rules, attachments and process of every kind now returnable to the term of the court to be held in Morganton in August next, shall be returned to the supreme court in Raleigh, to be held on the second Monday in June, 1862, and every failure to comply herewith shall be punishable by amercement or attachment in the discretion of the court; and that hereafter all causes whatsoever carried into the supreme court by appeal, removal or otherwise, from any of the superior courts of law or equity of the counties composing the sixth and seventh circuits, shall be brought to the supreme court at Raleigh, and that the judges of the superior court shall have full power and authority to make all necessary rules and orders for carrying into effect this act, and to make the clerk at Morganton proper allowance for the service herein required; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the supreme court at Raleigh to take charge of the records of the court at Morganton, and to furnish copies thereof when required in the same manner as copies of records are furnished from the records of the supreme court at Raleigh.

SEC. 16. Be it further enacted, That none of the provisions of this act shall apply to the collection of the State or county revenue or repeal any of the existing modes or remedies provided by law for the collection of the same.

SEC. 17. Be it further enacted, That the tax fee upon justices' judgment, returnable to the superior court, shall hereafter be the same as is now taxed in the several county courts.

SEC. 18. Be it further enacted, That the operation of the statute of limitations be and the same is hereby suspended so long as this act remains in force.

SEC. 19. Be it further enacted, That no provisions of this bill shall apply to the collection of interest on any contract already accrued or hereafter annually to accrue, except so far as the same is rendered necessary by the abolition of one term every year of the superior and supreme courts.

SEC. 20. Be it further enacted, That the time of four years be extended to executors and administrators, wherein to settle the estate of their executors and intestatts, and a further time in which to plead at the discretion of the courts, and all laws and clauses of laws coming in conflict with this provision be and the same are hereby repealed; Provided, That executors be and they are hereby required to give security in such sum as the court may direct.

SEC. 21. Be it further enacted, That the provisions of this act, extending the time of pleading, shall not extend to suits against citizens of the United States or to persons who have absconded from the State.

SEC. 22. Be it further enacted, That all laws or clauses of laws conflicting with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its ratification. (Ratified the 11th day of September, 1861.)

AN ACT TO RESTORE THE COURTS AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That there shall hereafter be two terms of the Superior Courts of law and Equity for each county in State, to be held at the times prescribed in the chapter thirty-one, sections nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen of the Revised Code, and by an act entitled "An act to establish the eighth Judicial Circuit, and for other purposes, ratified the 12th day of December, 1862."

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That said Superior Courts of law shall have jurisdiction to try and determine all actions of tort, under the rules and regulations which existed prior to the passage of an act entitled "An Act to change the jurisdiction of the Courts, and the rules of pleading therein," ratified the 11th day of September, 1861, and all process hereafter to be issued in such actions, and in all criminal proceedings, shall be made returnable in like manner and under the same penalties as were prescribed prior to the passage of said act: Provided, That no suits in debt, assumpsit or account, shall be tried before said courts by virtue of any jurisdiction conferred by this act.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That all process in the said actions and criminal proceedings from said courts, hereafter issued and made returnable to the fall term, 1864, of said courts, shall be deemed and taken to be returnable to the spring term, 1864, of said courts respectively.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That so much of the said act of September 11th, 1861, as applied to the rules of pleading in cases of bills for injunction and sequestration, and petitions for sale or partition of land, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That there shall, hereafter, be two terms of the supreme court, to be held in the city of Raleigh, on the second Monday in June, and the thirtieth day of December, or on the day after, in case the thirtieth day be Sunday.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the county courts shall have jurisdiction to try and determine all cases of contested wills.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That all laws coming in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.—[Ratified the 14th day of December, 1863.]

The following, from the Raleigh Standard, shows the spirit of those who arrogate to themselves some exclusive property in the title of "Unionist," in that State. We should suppose the threat would amount to nothing. President Johnson will not allow himself to be made the instrument of personal and private vindictiveness and malice. The people were lately threatened with Washington, if they did not elect Holden Governor instead of Worth. They put their heel upon the threat; and President Johnson has shown that those who thus thundered in his name, thundered without his authority. He will despise this attempt to muzzle the admirers of Governor Vance, by menace of barbaric severities against him.—Richmond Sentinel.
